HITS & STORYYS

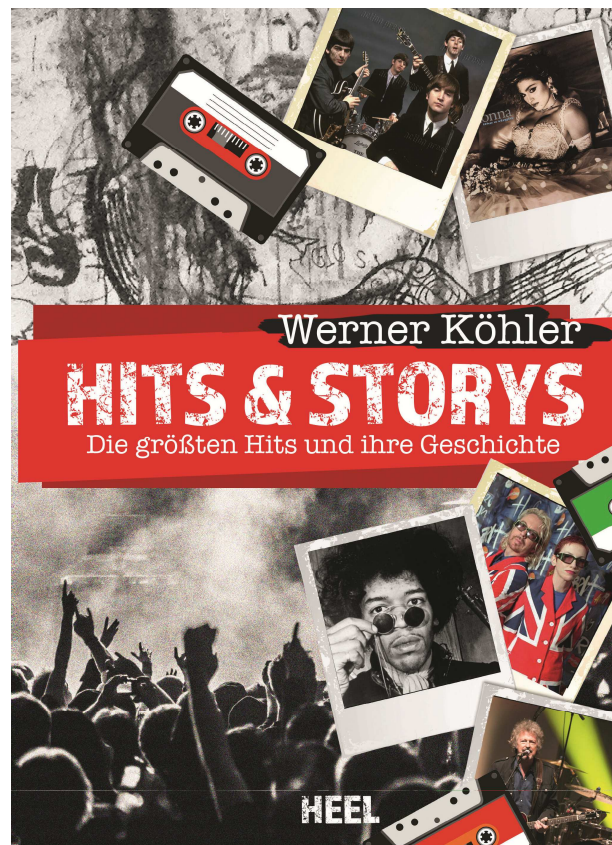

by Werner Köhler

CONTENT:

The author, a real music expert, is famous throughout Germany for his radio show revealing how the greatest songs of rock and pop history, mainly from the 1960s to 1980s, came into being. In 2016 he decided to put his amazing stories life on stage, thrilling his audience ever since.

He tells about Pink Floyd's classic track 'Comfortably Numb' which meant a kind of power struggle between Roger Waters and David Gilmore, how 'Money For Nothing' was stimulated by a remover's pejorative remark, or why 'Private Dancer' was originally written from a man's perspective.

Learn about the strange, touching and oftentimes also accidental incidents which led to world-famous songs or band names!
