

THE LITTLE BOOK OF BANKSY

by Karin Pütz

CONTENT:

Nobody knows who is behind the British street artist with the pseudonym Banksy - mysterious and at the same time with unmistakable messages, he makes an unexpected appearance. From Bristol and London to New York, Canada, Venice, Israel, to Ukraine, the emotional motifs with their trenchant messages take a critical look at world politics, community and consumer society.

This handy volume offers a special selection from his complete oeuvre, including the London campaign from August 2024, along with comprehensive information on the featured works and a brief but profound interpretation of the motifs.
