

ADVANCE TITLE INFORMATION

EASY COOKING FOR GOURMETS

by Ernst Petry

CONTENT:

The author Ernst Petry, who looks back on an impressive career as chef de partie and sous chef in a number of restaurants highly ranked by Gault Millau, is very familiar with the special challenges of the catering industry, such as lack of staff and time against an increased level of quality awareness among guests.

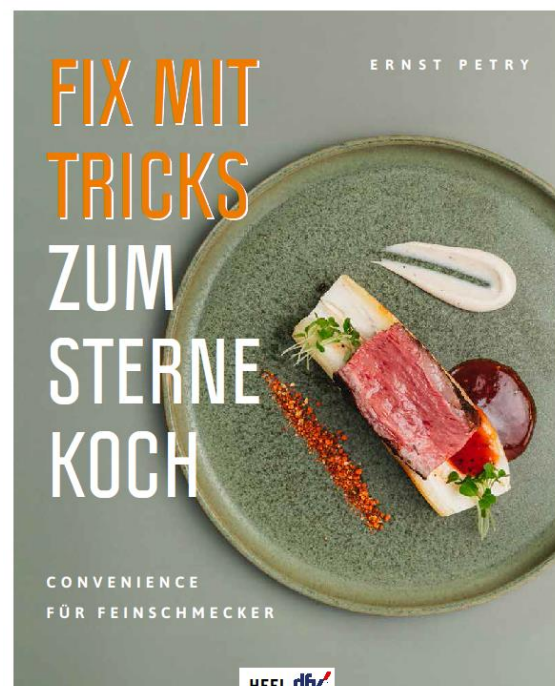

In order to support newcomers and advanced professionals of the catering industry he has compiled this book, providing a collection of perfectly selected and balanced recipes that can be quickly prepared thanks to convenience elements featured here. Each recipe contains the sources of supply for the convenience product and describes every step of the preparation in a clearly structured and easy accessible way. Even hobby cooks will be able to present fine-dining at home in no time!

The author: He heads up the family catering business in 3rd generation, after gaining 20 years of experience of working in the highest level of the international hotel and restaurant business.
