

THE BIG BOOK OF EDIBLE ART

By PREMALAL NARAHENAPITAGE

CONTENT:

This book is the ultimate practical food presentation manual for both experts and beginners. HEEL Verlag has already published several award-winning books by the highly acclaimed Kitchen artist Premalal Narahenapitage. This title sums it all up: a compilation of the best recipes and instructions from his previous publications in one comprehensive volume.

With the help of easy to follow step-by-step photography and clear instructions also beginners in food carving will be able to create amazing garnishes and buffet decorations that will not fail to impress anyone at your dinner party, birthday party or any gathering. The book not only presents an overview on the necessary tools and how to use them but also provides important information on the various sorts of vegetables and fruits and their individual storage requirements.

THE AUTHOR:

Born in Sri Lanka, Premalal Narahenapitage became a Kitchen Artist some time ago when he lived in Thailand for a couple of years to learn his special skills. Since then he has been spending most of his free time improving his carving skills and inventing new garnishes. Besides running his own restaurant he is famous for his edible buffet and dinner decorations and teaches colleagues from all over the country in vegetable and food carving. His previous book ZUM ESSEN ZU SCHADE won the World Gourmand Cookbook Award in the year 2000.
