by Friederike Friedel

CONTENT:

Savoury and sweet muffins, cakes and pastries... This all sounds delicious to men and women alike - but it smells even better for dogs! No preservatives, sugar or aromas distract your dogs tastebud from enjoying their healthy treat, even dogs with certain incompatibilities will find their individual titbit.

The Best of Dog's Deli recipes are all easy to follow - only common ingredients like apples, honey, spinach, bananas, tuna, mango or curd are being used. Plenty of illustrations will also guide you through and hints for the education of your dog are a useful side effect. The cookie cutters in the shape of various dogs come in handy and once you start filling up the little sachet with your homemade treats your dog will reward you with a constant wagging tail!

The author Friederike Friedel started baking for dogs when she realised that her dog was ill and no suitable food could be found for him. Without hesitation, she started baking on her own and in 2006 she decided to do it professionally. The products of her books and many more can be bought in a selected few cities like Düsseldorf and via internet .
