EASY RIDING

Ultimate motorcycle journeys across the USA

by Norbert Meiszies

CONTENT:

Travelling the U.S. by motorcycle is the dream of many bikers and for all those who need practical advice to make their dream come true this beautiful new book is the perfect gift and reference source!

It features a collection of 12 travel reports referring to various destinations within the United States. Apart from stunning photography, each travelogue or chapter contains an additional part with practical advice such as places to stay and eat, special events, motorcycle rentals and places of interest. A supplement at the end provides general information on travelling to the United States and living there.

Following the initial coast-to-coast ride with more than 7,000 km, the reader is led on excursions to the Canyonlands, Rocky Mountains and Yellowstone National Park, the Hollywood Hills, the Everglades, the Alaska ice streams, but also to the Harley-Davidson museum Milwaukee.

THE AUTHOR:

Norbert Meiszies runs his own editorial agency and is well-known as a motorcycle journalist with articles published in big German magazines and newspapers.
