CAMPING COOKBOOK

by Carsten Bothe

CONTENT:

Why is it that food tastes better outside? Well, one can only guess but cooking outdoors has always been popular around the world. There are of course many recipe books available these days, however the outdoor expert, Carsten Bothe, has compiled this ultimate guide to campsite cooking in cooperation with the ADAC, the largest automobile club in Europe.

Full of quick and easy recipes for outdoor eating this book also provides helpful information on all sorts of issues, starting with instructions for a simple campfire, featuring basic essentials and contains chapters on various cooking methods or how to choose the right cooking appliances such as the dutch oven or a skillet. Recipes are classified by various challenge levels so anyone can do it.

THE AUTHOR:

Being a studied anthropologist and journalist working for various arms and hunting magazines, Carsten Bothe gained his outdoor experience while serving in the German army as commanding officer. He successfully published many other books on the outdoors such as Wilderness Living, Cooking with the Dutch Oven, Home Butchering, Knives and Cooking on an open fire.
