HOME-DISTILLED SCHNAPS & LIQUEUR

by Carsten Bothe

CONTENT:

Everyone who owns a garden with fruit can easily produce his own, home-made schnapps and liqueur, both providing great personal and individual gifts.

The author Carsten Bothe gives you profound information on everything to know on 'moonshining', whether by means of an own distillery or just by steeping your fruit or herbs in liquor. Having been mocked as an emergency solution in earlier times, moonshining has become a popular and socially accepted hobby in recent years, which is definitely much easier than most people would expect.

For those having decided to acquire an own distillery, he comprehensively explains the necessary equipment, ingredients and proceedings, while also pointing out the possible risks while working with alcoholic vapours, as well as the legal aspects.

Whatever way of production of your own spirits you choose - based on high-quality ingredients and a bit of patience you'll be able to enjoy magnificent and impressive results!
