FRESH TREATS FROM HONEYDUKES

The unofficial Harry Potter pastries book

by Tom Grimm & Katja Böhm

CONTENT:

Next to adventures and wizardry, the world of Harry Potter and his friends is filled with an extraordinary choice of sweet treats, and the great hall's tables are oftentimes dished up with amazing amounts of culinary delights.

Magic wands made of liquorice, fizzing whizzbees, syrup drops, jelly slugs, and Bertie Bott's every flavor beans are also highly sought after by all the student wizards when passing by Honeydukes, one of their favourite shops.

After his best-selling Magical Cookbook, the author Tom Grimm presents a colourful new volume with more than 80 compelling recipes neither a muggle or a real potterhead will be able to resist.

The author, who has been working as a journalist, editor and translator, is also a trained chef and therefore knows how to combine his passion for literature, movies and games with the world of culinary pleasures.
