

THE UNOFFICIAL RAMMSTEIN BOOK

by Michael Fuchs-Gamböck

CONTENT:

They keep polarising like no other European band - either you love them or you hate them. There seems to be nothing in between when it comes to Rammstein. And no matter where they perform, they are euphorically celebrated, their live productions are spectacular. All over the world.

Their song lyrics break taboos, they provoke, they have their very own, often sarcastic sense of humour - and they are among the most successful bands to bring German-language songs to stages and charts worldwide.

This completely updated unofficial book on Rammstein and their complete works tells from an unbiased point of view from their beginnings in the mid-1990s in Berlin up to the current European tour, which will be continued from May 2024!
